

ALLEN

CARDOZA

Host of
“Answers for the Family”
Radio Show
& Founder of
Westshield Adolescence Services

PROFESSIONAL

A licensed private investigator for more than 30 years, Allen and his staff at Westshield Adolescence Services, has escorted thousands of teens to specialized schools and programs, returned hundreds of runaways and retrieved many abducted children.

SPEAKER

As a guest speaker at corporate conferences, special events, and on radio and TV; Allen is described as one of the most “engaging and passionate” of presenters. Better than anyone, he has insight into the important topics of families with “at risk” youth and teen runaways in America.

RADIO HOST

A tremendous success, Allen’s “Answers for the Family” radio show, which broadcasts weekly on LA Talk Radio, features interviews with nationally-known authors and authorities on topics such as: runaway teens, family crisis intervention, building self esteem, dealing with addictions, and the many of the “everyday” concerns of parents. The show also introduces listeners to the latest trends in family guidance, education, psychology and treatment methodologies.
